PERTINENT INFORMATION

(1) GUTTENT's [] term of service as President of the Organization has been extended until at least April 1968, one year past his 66th birthday (3 Apr 67). (EGO-17) WINTERSTEIN has advised during Apr 66 that all the political parties in the parliament had promised WINTERSTEIN to stay on the and he had consented to do so for another two years. (EGMA-684) This request may have been made through the All-Party Parliamentary Group which serves as a watchdog over the Organization's operations. (EGMA-69585). WINTERSTEIN's Ministerial duties were candidates to replace GUTTENT when he was retired. (EGMA-6166). Also, one Organization official stated that possibly Stefan THOMAS, head of the Ost Bureau, might well have been offered WINTERSTEIN's position if the SPD had formed a small coalition government during the recent Bonn crisis. (EGO-167 and EGO-171).
